

TACKLING SEXUAL ABUSE IN THE 21ST CENTURY

2nd May 2018 at The Amadeus Centre, London W9

Speakers

- Chief Constable Simon Bailey
National Police Chiefs' Lead for Child Protection
- A therapist and an offender
talk together about the therapeutic process
- A survivor of sexual abuse
- A family member of someone convicted for committing a sexual offence

This conference will allow you to get a first-hand account, from people who are directly involved with sexual offences. Through these conversations and presentations, delegates will get a direct understanding of the core issues.

The conference will be of interest to anyone interested in, or working with, the criminal justice system, mental health, child protection and exploitation. This will include (but not be limited to) Members of Parliament, probation officers, social workers, psychotherapists and counsellors, doctors, police, journalists as well as the general public.

Due to the sensitive nature of the presentations photography will NOT be permitted and some presenters may use a pseudonym.
